January Bible And Breakfast
Saturday, January 11, 2020
7:30-9:00 AM

We Are Called!

Join us on Saturday, January 11th from 7:30-9:00 AM for Breakfast and Bible Study. We will explore vocation, or "call", in many contexts. As we learn about how our ancestors in faith heard and responded to God's call, we will reflect on our own lives and callings. How do we hear and respond to God's call? How do we help others do this?

All Are Welcome!

Please Sign Up On The Sheet On The Cabinet And Indicate Whether You Will Supply Breakfast.

Offering Envelopes

Your 2020 Offering Envelopes are available for pick up on a table at the back of the Church.

If you were missed, contact the Church Office.

Generic Offering Envelopes are available for use on the cabinet next to the hallway and at the ends of each pew.

A good alternative is "Simply Giving" which automatically remits your offering to the church. Contact the Church Office, 717-336-2141, Monday-Thursday 8:00 AM—3:00 PM; Friday, 8:00 AM—1:00 PM for more details.

Called To Be Light In A Dark World

Happy New Year!

Somehow, 2020 is upon us. In the midst of the celebration of newness and possibility, another reality exists in the background: January, the month whose arrival we celebrate, is a long and dark month.

It is gray and dreary, cold, can be an extremely challenging time for those who struggle with seasonal affective disorder. The holidays are over, the days are short, and many folks are stuck inside. This is a tough month.

A few years ago, at the end of January, I spent some time in Iceland—a country that, due to its northern position on the globe, only gets around three (3) hours of sunlight every day during deep winter. I was mentally prepared to feel sad and exhausted during my time there because of this. When we got to Reykjavik, however, one of the first things I noticed was the presence of light—almost everywhere. On doorsteps, in windowsills, lining the streets—it's a tradition in Iceland during winter to fill public spaces and homes with lanterns, so that even in the midst of darkness light might shine through. I was shocked at how such a seemingly gloomy place could suddenly become so cozy and filled with hope.

At the beginning of this long, dark month, we celebrate the feast of Epiphany (January 6). Epiphany heralds the arrival of King Herod's wise men at Jesus' manger after being led by the light of a star, but it's also about so much more than that—this is the story of a child who brought so much light and hope into the world that he made the powers of empire shake in their boots. Terrified of this new sign of justice, peace, and favor of the lowly, King Herod sent those very wise men to figure out this child's identity and location so that he could be killed. But something happens when the wise men meet Jesus, the light of the world—they realize that this child, this sign of hope and new life and God's reign on Earth, is for them, too. And then they live according to that knowledge—they change their course, and never return to King Herod. They become signs of Christ's light in the world.

Epiphany is a feast about light in the midst of darkness. In the face of terrible empire and murderous intent, the wise men are called to proclaim the hope of the reign of God and to change the course of history. Now that God's love and grace have become flesh in our world, look at what is possible!

In the midst of this dark season, remember that we have received the gift of Christ's light, which no darkness can overcome. Remember too that we are called to be signs of that light—to be lanterns—in the world. God equips us for ministry and for life in relationship, even though we have no idea what lies ahead and sometimes don't even trust ourselves. Forgiveness and reconciliation are ours—grace is ours.

May we shine like sacred lanterns of God's holy hope and light in the midst of this dark world. Amen.

Peace, Pastor Marissa Becklin

JANUARY WORSHIP

Second Sunday Of Christmas
Sunday, January 5, 2020

Jeremiah 31:7-14; Psalm 147:12-20; Ephesians 1:3-14; John 1:[1-9] 10-18. Within the gospel reading's profound words lies the simple message that God is revealed in a human person. Though we may try to understand how the Word existed with God from the beginning of time, the wonder we celebrate at Christmas is that the Word continues to dwell among us. Christ comes among us in the gathered assembly, the scriptures, the waters of new birth, and the bread and the wine. Through these ordinary gifts we receive the fullness of God's grace and truth.

Baptism Of Our Lord
Sunday, January 12, 2020

Isaiah 42:1-9; Psalm 29:1-11; Acts 10:34-43; Matthew 3:13-17. In the waters of the Jordan, Jesus is revealed as the beloved Son of God. Through this great epiphany, Jesus fulfills all righteousness and becomes the servant of God who will bring forth justice and be a light to the nations. In the waters of baptism we too are washed by the Word, anointed by the Spirit, and named God's beloved children. Our baptismal mission is to proclaim good news to all who are oppressed or in need of God's healing.

Second Sunday After Epiphany
Sunday, January 19, 2020

Isaiah 49:1-7; Psalm 40:1-11; 1 Corinthians 1:1-9; John 1:29-42. Today's gospel opens with further reflection on Jesus' baptism. He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, and the one anointed by the Spirit. In the liturgy we come and see Christ revealed among us in word and meal. We go forth to invite others to come and worship the Holy One, and to receive the gifts of grace and peace made known among us.

Third Sunday After Epiphany
Sunday, January 26, 2020

Isaiah 9:1-4; Psalm 27:1, 4-9; 1 Corinthians 1:10-18; Matthew 4:12-23. Jesus begins his public ministry by calling fishers to leave their nets and follow him. In Jesus the kingdom of God has come near. We who have walked in darkness have seen a great light. We see this light most profoundly in the cross—as God suffers with us and all who are oppressed by sickness, sin, or evil. Light dawns for us as we gather around the word, the font, and the holy table. We are then sent to share the good news that others may be "caught" in the net of God's grace and mercy.

Health Notes

Happy New Year!

At the start of this new year, here are some resolutions to think about:

Pray, pray, pray. Ask God to help you put things in perspective.

Get at least seven-nine hours of sleep a night.

Eat healthy, well-balanced meals. Look for fresh fruit and vegetables. Limit baked goods and sweets.

Exercise regularly.

Prioritize.

Live within your budget.

Be thankful for what you do have.

Forgive yourself and others.

Delegate tasks to others; you don't have to do it all.

Think of others.

Take time to be still.

Laugh, laugh, laugh.

Worship with family and friends.

At the end of the day, thank the Lord for everything He has blessed you with.

By each entry door there are salt/de-icer containers in case of slippery conditions during this season of the year.

If you come to church and see that there is a need to clear an area, please feel free to make it safe for other people entering the church. Thanks

Thanks so much for all of your cards, prayers and visits following my surgery. Your kindness is much appreciated. I take great comfort in my Faith family. Susan K. Means

My Sincere Thanks for your cards, phone calls and well wishes I had received during my recent birthday. It made my day very special.
My appreciation to all! God Bless, Caryll Lausch

Thank You for the cards and well wishes I received on my recent birthday. I am glad to be part of this caring congregation. John Loeber

DENVER & EPHRATA COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER
P.O. Box 287
Denver, PA 17517

December 2019

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We are once again sending you a follow-up letter concerning the free Thanksgiving Day Dinner held at the Ephrata Business Center. Once again, this meal could only be possible through God touching and opening hearts of the churches and businesses of which we are very, very greatful and thankful. Here are the stats from this year's meals.

Meals delivered---------- 1,010
Sit Down Meals---------- 694

Total Meals served----------1,704

We had around 50 Turkeys, 600 pounds of mashed potatoes, 9 trays of donated butter rolls, 12 cases of donated fruit, 140 pounds cranberry salad, 170 pounds of pepper cabbage, 441 pounds green beans, 411 pounds corn and many tables filled with donated desserts. Each person also received a gift bag containing candy, crackers, book markers, a personal card and many spiritual items.

We had around 170 volunteers doing various jobs throughout the meal and over 90 businesses and 40 churches together support this event. 2020 will be our 21st year for this event.

There were again so many hearts touched and so many stories of thankfulness. Only with your support can these things be possible.

Those of you who served or contributed in any way, we give you a great big THANK YOU!!! If you could volunteer for any time or serve in any way for the 2020 meal, please keep it in mind if you were not able to do so this year. Again,. thank you very much!

Dear Pastor Becklin:

On behalf of the Community Action Partnership of Lancaster County (CAP), I would like to thank you and all the participants of this summer's Vacation Bible School for your generous contribution of $386.00 and Welcome Bags to our organization's Domestic Violence Services program (DVS). Donations like yours ensure that families in our community in dangerous situations will always have a safe place to turn.

With your help, last year DVS was able to serve over 1,500 survivors and their children with services including our emergency shelter, 24-hour hotline, DVS legal clinic, transitional housing services, and more. We are committed to seeing families through the journey of not only escaping domestic violence, but working toward stable, violence free futures. Thank you for playing an important role in that journey by providing hope to survivors when they need it most.

Thank you for your support!

With gratitude,

Kristy Aurand
Chief Development Officer

Thank you so much!

FANTASIA!

OF ALL MUSICAL FORMS, THE FANTASIA IS THE WILDEST AND MOST OVERTLY EXPRESSIVE.

As defined by Merriam-Webster, a fantasia is "a free... composition not in strict form," or, "a work... in which the author's fancy roves unrestricted," or, "something possessing grotesque, bizarre, or unreal qualities." In a concert presented by our Cantor, Christopher Prestia, you will experience the breadth, depth, and full span of the human experience and imagination in music. Nothing about this concert will be tame or predictable. From William Byrd to Billy Joel you'll hear some of the best fantasias for organ, piano, and cello. Come, unleash your imagination, and let the music take you places you've never dreamed of!

Take A Book, Leave A Book

There is shelving in the Library with books and DVDs and everyone is invited to share in the joy of reading. The premise is to bring a book/DVDs to put on the shelves, then browse the other books/DVDs to find one to take with you.

When you're done and you really like it, you can keep it or bring it back for others to use. Any subject is welcome. There are no deadlines and no signing out books/DVDs. If you like it, take it. There are LOTS of books...so please come and enjoy them.
